1. Greg announced that Summer hours are now under affect.
    - No walkup / morning services
  2. There was a general discussion over the announced sale of the neighboring Bustop property to Thistle Management.
    - Any redevelopment or changes in the current business are a long way (years?) off.
    - Lots of discussion/speculation
  3. Greg talked about continued discussions between the Boulder Shelter, Bridge House, and BOHO. There continues to be extensive discussions on how services can be made more efficient through collaboration.
  4. Greg will continue to work with the City, County, and CDOT (where possible) on cleanup along Broadway north of the Shelter and in all areas of North Boulder.
  5. Barring any objection over the summer hiatus, the next meeting of the NSAG will be on Tuesday September 13.
